

Attention all Registered Nurses

Here's an opportunity to maintain your professional development hours

Health Ed Trust has exciting new distance learning resources to help you to achieve your professional development hours at a time and a place that suits you.

Registered Nurses' Professional Development Series:

- Complete two modules each year to meet professional development hours.
- Interesting and relevant topics that directly apply to your everyday practice.
- Choose modules that are important to you.

Initial modules are:

• Module One:	Reflective Practice Compulsory, as this module is a "how to" for all the following modules
• Module Two:	Clinical Supervision and Preceptorship
• Module Three:	Safe Administration of Medications
• Module Four:	Direction and Delegation
• Module Five:	Pain Management
• Module Six:	Mentoring and Coaching

Available early 2011

Late 2011

Registered Nurses

Keep up your professional development hours

Other modules include (not in any order):

- Therapeutic and Professional Communication
- Skill Mix and Safe Staffing
- Leadership
- End of Life Care
- Dementia, Delirium and Depression
- Management Skills
- Time Management
- Responding to Challenging Behaviour
- Quality of Life
- Abuse and Neglect

How does it work?

1. Each RN completes the individual purchase form and sends it to Health Ed Trust with payment.
2. Health Ed Trust sends module resources to the RN.
3. The RN works through the module and completes the Self Assessment Activities.
4. Support is available by phone, email or on-line forum.
5. Completed Self Assessment Activities are sent to Health Ed Trust for verification.
6. A certificate of completion is sent detailing module completed and number of hours.
