

Application for a Variation of Conditions

For changing the conditions of a temporary permit

Who may apply for a variation of conditions?

You may apply for a variation of conditions if you hold a student permit, a work permit, or a visitor's permit.

If you hold a student permit you may apply for a variation of conditions to allow you to change the course you are studying and/or the education provider you are studying with, or to allow you to work part time and/or full time during your holidays.

If you are applying for a variation of conditions to change the course you are studying and/or the education provider you are studying with, you must obtain a variation of conditions before changing your course and/or education provider.

If you withdraw from your course of study and/or education provider before varying the conditions of your permit, you will be in breach of your permit conditions. Applicants who breach their permit conditions may not ordinarily be granted a variation of conditions and may be liable to have their permit revoked and be required to leave New Zealand or be removed.

If you hold a work permit you may apply for a variation of conditions to allow you to change your employer and/or your place of employment, or to study part time.

If you hold a visitor's permit you can apply for a variation of conditions to allow you to study part time or work part time. If you hold a visitor's permit granted for the purpose of being a guardian to a foreign fee-paying student you will only be allowed to work/study between the hours of 9:30am and 2:30pm Monday to Friday (inclusive).

What should you send with your application?

When you have completed the form, please use the checklist at the end to make sure you have sent all the documents we need.

Where do you send your application?

Send your application to your nearest Immigration New Zealand office. See www.immigration.govt.nz/contactus for office addresses.

Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007

Under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007, anyone giving immigration advice will have to be licensed (unless they are exempt). From 4 May 2009, all immigration advisers working in New Zealand must be licensed.

From 4 May 2010, all immigration advisers, whether working onshore or offshore, must be licensed. It is an offence to provide immigration advice without holding a licence from these dates. If your immigration adviser is not licensed when they should be, Immigration New Zealand will return your application.

For more information and to view the Register of licensed advisers, go to the Immigration Advisers Authority website www.iaa.govt.nz, or email info@iaa.govt.nz.
